

World Wetlands Day

2 February 2016

Wetlands
for our Future

Sustainable Livelihoods

This day marks the date of the adoption of the Convention on Wetlands on 2 February 1971, in the Iranian city of Ramsar on the shores of the Caspian Sea.

East Texas & Oklahoma Emphasis Area Big Cypress Restoration Project

In cooperation with FWS, TPWD, Caddo Lake Institute, Friends of CLNWR, Cypress Basin Chapter of Texas Master Naturalists, & Jefferson Railway & Wetlands Foundation...

TODAY Foundation – Collins Academy presents

Extended Opportunities to Improve Wetland Habitat in the Big Cypress Watershed

- February 3 – CLNWR Duck Pond
- February 10 – TPWD WMA
- February 13 (Sat.) - Diamond Don's
- February 17 - Diamond Don's
- February 24 – Port Jefferson History & Nature Center
- Make Up Date: February 5
- Make Up Date: February 12
- No Make Up Date
- Make Up Date: February 19
- Make Up Date: March 15

Bring

- Appropriate Clothing
- Sharp shooter shovels
- 5 gallon bucket
- Gloves
- Rubber boots
- Drinking Water

World Wetlands Day
Tuesday, 2 February 2016

Wetlands for our Future
Sustainable Livelihoods

When & Where

All events begin at 10 AM and end no later than 2 PM

Event 1 @ Duck Pond Meet at REFUGE HEADQUARTERS (9:45-10)

Event 2 @ WMA Meet at POTTERS POINT COMMUNITY CENTER

Events @ Diamond Don's Meet at DEPOT

Event @ Port Jefferson History & Nature Center Meet at TRAILHEAD on Dallas St. between Polk and Walnut St.

REGISTER

- By e-mailing endsley961@gmail.com with information
- By calling (903) 665-2900 and giving information
- By filling in your information on the registration form before leaving this meeting.

World Wetlands Day
Tuesday, 2 February 2016

Wetlands for our Future
Sustainable Livelihoods